

Mephibosheth

Accessibility Audit

Check all the boxes that apply to your church. In the empty space, write your own idea for how your church could welcome all people.

- There is a sign that welcomes people from all backgrounds to your church.
- There are signs that give directions to the bathrooms, nursery, sanctuary, fellowship hall, and so forth.
- The parking lot has spaces marked for visitors or guests.
- There is an informational table with pamphlets, flyers, or other information about the church.
- There are bulletin boards with announcements about what's going on in the church.
- Greeters are stationed at all the entrances before worship services.
- Church members wear name tags and invite visitors to do so as well.
- People introduce themselves and talk to people they don't know.
- There is time for people to talk to one another before or after worship and Sunday school.
- There is a class for newcomers to learn about the church.
- There is a time during worship when visitors are welcomed.
- The church offers gifts or cards to new visitors.
- The church website has a statement welcoming all people.
- It is easy to find information on the church website about worship services, Sunday school, and other events.
- _____

Mephibosheth

At Your Table

Who would you want to share a meal with? Are there special people you would want to invite to eat with you? Write or draw about it.

