

Ruth and Naomi

Courageous Women

Do you have special women in your life? What women help you, teach you, and guide you? Write or draw about these special women.

Ruth and Naomi

Special Women

Esther – She had to go before the king and risked her life for her people. Esther was brave and saved the people. It takes courage to make the right decisions when it's hard.

Ruth – When Naomi, Ruth's mother-in-law, was faced with a hard decision, Ruth showed love and care for her. They went together on a long journey and loved each other along the way. Ruth was faithful to her family and to God and showed love to others.

Hannah – Hannah wasn't afraid to pray for something that seemed like it was impossible. She believed that God would hear her prayers. Hannah teaches us that nothing is too big for God, and we always can go to God in prayer.

Mary – Mary the mother of Jesus became God's servant. God gave her the most important job, being Jesus' mom. Mary trusted God and helped bring God's light and love into the world.

Deborah – Deborah helped people by using her wisdom. She was a strong leader. Deborah knew to ask God for help and to share her faithfulness with others.

Rahab – Spies were sent to Jericho and were in danger. Rahab protected them and kept them safe. She looked for those who needed help and helped them.

Abigail – Abigail was married to a mean man named Nabal. Her husband was rude to David and his soldiers, even though David had been kind to him. David was about to kill Nabal, but Abigail went to David to make peace. Abigail teaches us that it is important to share God's peace and forgiveness.

Lydia – After Lydia heard Paul preach, she began to believe in Jesus. Paul and Lydia became friends, and Lydia helped start many new churches. Lydia teaches us to have faith and to share our faith with our friends and family.